

Not "How Much?"

but "how good?" is the question that every one should ask in buying candy.

The old saying that "a man is judged by the candy he gives" holds good today as always. Buy the best—don't take the "just as good" kind.

The people who visited the Berlin last night were highly amused at the latest style airships, thrilled by the adventures of the cumbersome baby, enjoyed the pleasurable gentleman who recoiled in horror from the gipsy's revenge. Miss Etta May's songs touched the music nerve of any and everyone present, and if she had responded to every encore, she would have been singing till midnight. Go around this evening and how it looks to be electrocuted, and view the leap year proposals of an old maid. An old maid was never foolish enough anywhere was never foolish enough to propose not see it there you never will. Miss Etta May will only be here a few more evenings, so don't lose any opportunity of hearing her splendid soprano voice.

Hon. B. E. McLin of Tallahassee, came down today and is a guest of the Ocala House. He will go on south with Inspector of Convict Camps John T. Lewis to view some of the convict camps in that section. Mr. McLin has visited some of the camps in central, east and west Florida lately and is now on his way to the southern part of the state.

AN INSANE MOTHER

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 5.—While temporarily insane yesterday, Mrs. Catherine Lynn, aged 31, cut the throat of her 3-year-old daughter, Mary, and tried to kill a neighbor's child. She then cut her own throat. The woman and the child died instantly.

WORK HAS BEEN RESUMED ON GOVERNMENT BUILDING

Work was resumed this morning on the government building after a shut down of two months or more. The work will probably not be stopped again until the building is completed and as soon as enough material arrives a large force of men will be put to work on the job. Mr. E. M. Williams arrived yesterday and will be here with his father Mr. G. K. Williams, who is the superintendent in charge for the contractors, Messrs. Hoertz Sons & Co. Mr. Williams, Sr., will arrive tonight or tomorrow from an absence of over a month. He has been dividing his time between the quarries, where the material for the building is being gotten out, and has a number of carloads on the way. Excavation was begun this morning for the south portico that was restored as per the original plans. Mr. E. M. Williams is a most pleasant young gentleman and will remain with us until the job is completed.

MEETING W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. held the largest and probably the most enthusiastic meeting of its history yesterday afternoon at the Methodist church to make final arrangements for the convening of the state organization next week, November 10th to 12th in this city. Sr. will arrive tonight or tomorrow from an absence of over a month. He has been dividing his time between the quarries, where the material for the building is being gotten out, and has a number of carloads on the way. Excavation was begun this morning for the south portico that was restored as per the original plans. Mr. E. M. Williams is a most pleasant young gentleman and will remain with us until the job is completed.

The church will be beautifully decorated with silver bells in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the order in Florida, embellished and ornamented with plants, flowers and ferns and green stuffs from the woods and hawthorn.

The committee on decorations consists of Mrs. C. L. Bittinger, chairman; Mrs. Walter Hood, Mrs. W. W. Clavett, Mrs. Kirkland, Mrs. W. S. Durst, Mrs. Baxter Carr and Mrs. L. F. Black.

Mrs. E. L. Carney is chairman of the committee on entertainment. The delegates will be entertained at many of the homes in the city. Mrs. E. Van Hood has charge of securing homes for the delegates.

A BEAUTIFUL WINDOW

One of the prettiest windows in the city today was the one of the grocery department of the H. B. Masters Co. store dressed by Manager Harry Laplan and his assistants. The window contains fruits and fruit products, preserved, dried and otherwise, except a pyramid in the center of huge red New York state apples, and each item in the window is the very best and most beautiful of its kind. The window attracted a great deal of attention and made every one hungry who saw it.

CITY COUNCIL TONIGHT

The city council will meet tonight in the first meeting of the month and a full attendance is urged. The meeting Tuesday night did not materialize and was adjourned until tonight.

CUT ROSES, ETC.

Those wishing cut roses should place their orders for them at the Wolfe & Heintz Bakers. The North Magnolia street, where Mr. John Heintz, the florist, will keep them on ice. The supply of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums is not sufficient every day to meet the demand and orders should be placed eight days ahead to insure their being filled. Wolfe & Heintz are also dealers in fancy groceries, confectionery and fruit.

Dr. Willis went down to Crystal River Tuesday to look after Mr. J. J. Hood, who could not leave his business here.

Mrs. H. B. Clarkson returned yesterday noon from Crystal River, having accompanied Mrs. M. D. J. to the bedside of her sick son, Mr. John J. Hood.

Mrs. Robert Sanders and little daughter, are the guests of Mrs. G. W. Martin.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Tuesday, December 15th, at the residence of Mr. J. D. Robertson a bazaar will be held by the Baptist Sewing Circle. On account of the large membership this year this sale will be more extensive and comprise a larger variety of articles than heretofore. The display will include handkerchiefs, embroidered shirtwaist fronts, baby pillows, embroidered baby shoes, sofa pillows, underwear and useful articles in fancy work. A new feature in the work this year is raffia baskets in all colors and sizes. Patronize a worthy cause and satisfy your needs at the same time.
